VERBIVORE'S VORACIOUS VOCABULARY

Each week, you will:

- Find 3 new vocabulary words that you don't know
 - o 1 must come from the independent book you are reading
 - 2 can come from anywhere (that you saw or heard)
- Keep them in a folder called Verbivore's Voracious Vocabulary in Notability
- Create a new note each week (each note has 3 words)
- Label each note with Vocabulary and the date (month-day)

For each word you must:

- write the word in color and spell it correctly.
- identify the correct part of speech and write a dictionary definition.
- Write where you heard/found the word·

AND, you must choose ONE of the following for each word:

- Write a creative "showing" sentence that makes use of the word in such a context that someone could guess the word's meaning. A showing sentence has an action verb, not a telling verb, like was, is, are, am, were, be, been.
- A "Mr· Stick" drawing with a dialogue bubble or caption; the bubble or caption must correctly use the word.
- Three different-but-related words. This does not mean adding a prefix or suffix to the word, like un- or -ing or -s. A different-but-related word means the vocabulary word shares a common root with three other words. If my vocabulary word is fortitude, for example, then the related words might be fortress, fortify, and forte.
- A personified description of a character whose surname is the vocabulary word· The description must connect the word's meaning to the "person's" personality or job·
- Two synonyms and two antonyms for the vocabulary word.
- A picture or clip art with an explanation of why the image relates to the vocabulary word·

Sample of vocabulary words and what is required for each one · We only need 3 words ·
